THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

At the meeting of the Executive Committee (members present, Roger Adams, O. W. Caldwell, A. J. Carlson, chairman, B. E. Livingston, Kirtley F. Mather, Walter R. Miles, F. R. Moulton and E. C. Stakman) held on June 24, 1945, the following actions were taken:

1. The Association will take over the editorship of SCIENCE January 1, 1946.

2. The nominees for consideration in connection with the editorship of SCIENCE secured by the Special Committee (Drs. George A. Baitzell, Philip Bard, Howard P. Barss, W. F. G. Swann) from the canvass of the members of the Council and submitted to the Executive Committee, were subjected to a preferential ballot and the chairman of the Executive Committee was authorized to contact these nominees in the order of the preference ballot, with reference to availability, and to report to the Executive Committee.

3. The chairman and the Permanent Secretary were authorized to submit the names of nominees for editorial advisers for SCIENCE (two nominees from each section, one to be elected), which were presented to the Executive Committee by the SCIENCE Policy Committee (Malcolm H. Soule, Roger Adams, Walter R. Miles), to the members of the Council for election.

4. The chairman was authorized to appoint a committee to study and make proposals for the acquisition of adequate housing facilities for the growing activities of the Association, and this committee was authorized to proceed immediately to secure funds for a permanent home for the Association.
