Government, Industry, the University, and Basic Research
Role of Government in Basic Research: P. E. Klopsteg ................. 781
Basic Research in Industry: M. E. Spaght ................................ 784
Role of the University in Basic Research: K. S. Pitzer .................... 789

News and Notes
Pacific Division 1955 Meeting; and Regular Departments .................. 792

Book Reviews
Manson's Tropical Diseases; The Nation Looks at Its Resources; Monomeric Acrylic Esters; Books Reviewed in The Scientific Monthly; and New Books ...................................................... 799

Technical Papers
Intracellular Distribution of Rat-Liver Arylsulfatase as Compared with That of Acid Phosphatase and Glucose-6-Phosphatase: R. Gianetto and R. Viala .......................................................... 801
Olfactometric Method Utilizing Natural Breathing in an Odor-Free "Environment": B. M. Wenzel ................................................................. 802
Bio-oxygenation of Progesterone by Mushrooms: J. F. Roland, Jr., and B. A. Weiner ................................................................. 803
Cultivation of Large Cultures of HeLa Cells in Horse Serum: V. P. Perry, V. J. Evans, W. R. Earle .................................................. 805

Communications
Were the Carolina Bays Oriented by Gyroscopic Action?: W. Schriever ................................................................. 806
Spectral Emission of Composite Liquid Phosphors: F. X. Roser .......... 806
Value of a "Negative" Experiment in Extrasensory Perception: J. B. Rhine ................................................................. 808
Organizing Scientists To Meet a National Emergency: J. O. Hirschfelder ................................................................. 809

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE