MICROPSYCHIC

American Association for the Advancement of Science was founded in 1848 and incorporated in 1874. Its objects are the furtherance of the work of scientists, to facilitate cooperation among them; to improve the effectiveness of science in the solution of human welfare, and to increase public understanding and appreciation of the importance and promise of methods of science in human progress.

COVER

Micropyle on surface of egg of non-diaposing strain of the gypsy moth (Lymantria dispar L.). It looks like that on the normal eggs (about x 2800). See page 1462. [Kathleen Stone Shields, Northeastern Forest Experiment Station, U.S. Forest Service, Hamden, Connecticut]
