COVER

Page from Harriot's manuscript showing drawings of the sun numbered 41 through 44. The first observation is from his residence at Syon House, 6 February 1612 (Julian calendar, year beginning 1 January). The symbol following the date identifies the weekday as Thursday; the hour is 7 1/4. The subsequent three observations are from the London house of his close friend Sir Walter Raleigh. Harriot, elsewhere, has noted this to be 8 miles north and 4 1/4 miles west of Syon. See page 1079. [By permission of Lord Egremont and Leconfield, Petworth House, Sussex]
