Association for the Advancement of Science was founded in 1848 and incorporated in 1874. Its objects are to promote the work of scientists, to facilitate cooperation among them, to foster scientific freedom and responsibility, to increase the effectiveness of science in the promotion of human welfare, and to increase public understanding and appreciation of the importance and promise of the methods of science in human progress.

COVER

(Left) Landsat image of section of Sahara Desert. (Right) Radar penetration through windblown sand of same area of the desert, revealing subsurface drainage features such as dry stream valleys and channels. (Northeast direction is top.)
