LOGO AND GEOGRAPHY (E)

American Association for the Advancement of Science was founded in 1848 and incorporated in 1874. Its objects are to further the work of scientists, to facilitate cooperation among them, to foster scientific freedom and responsibility, improve the effectiveness of science in the promotion of human welfare, and prove scientific understanding and clarification of the importance and promise of the methods of science in human progress.

COVER

Seated human figure carved in stone on the Pyramid of the Plumed Serpent at Xochicalco. Plumed speech scrolls emanating from the figure's mouth indicated praise to the gods and ordination of man. See page 579. [Kenneth G. Hirth, Department of Anthropology, University of Kentucky, Lexington 40506]
