Science is indexed in the Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature and in several specialized indexes.

The American Association for the Advancement of Science was founded in 1848 and incorporated in 1874. Its objects are to further the work of scientists, to facilitate cooperation among them, to foster scientific freedom and responsibility, to improve the effectiveness of science in the public understanding and appreciation of the importance and promise of the methods of science in human progress.
Subsets of developing T lymphocytes from a mouse, stained with fluorescently labeled monoclonal antibodies against the membrane glycoproteins, CD4 and CD8 (×2800). Helper T cells (orange, CD4+), cytotoxic and suppressor T cells (green, CD8+), and immune blast cells (yellow, CD4+ and CD8+) each exhibit a characteristic pattern of ion-channel expression.
