■ The American Association for the Advancement of Science was founded in 1848 and incorporated in 1874. Its objectives are to further the work of scientists, to facilitate cooperation among them, to foster scientific freedom and responsibility, to improve the effectiveness of science in the promotion of human welfare, to advance education in science, and to increase public understanding and appreciation of the importance and promise of the methods of science in human progress.

600 SCIENCE, VOL. 251
COVER  Painted mural of Tikal, Guatemala, illustrating the scale of landscaping and reservoir construction during the Late Classic (A.D. 600 to 900) in portions of the southern Maya Lowlands. Carlos Vierra painted this mural in 1914–15 for the Panama-California Exposition in celebration of the completion of the Panama Canal. See page 658.
