POSITIONS OPEN

ASSISTANT DEAN AND DEPARTMENT CHAIRPERSON

Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences
Feik School of Pharmacy
University of the Incarnate Word

The Feik School of Pharmacy at the University of the Incarnate Word invites applications and nominations for the position Assistant Dean and Chairperson of the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences. This is a tenure-track position available at the ASSOCIATE or FULL PROFESSOR LEVEL. The Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences currently has 10 faculty members, with plans to grow to 12. The Department also includes a contingent of adjunct lecturers and research collaborators.

The successful candidate will provide leadership and vision for the Department while participating with the Dean in policy making, expansion, and governance of the School. The Chairperson will oversee faculty recruitment and retention, mentor and evaluate faculty, and assume a role in guiding the growth and development of the faculty.

The Chairperson will serve as an advocate for faculty, staff, and students, while helping to maintain an environment that embraces excellence in teaching, scholarship, and community service. The Chairperson is expected to interface with current institutional affiliates; help create new affiliations; and represent the school in local, state, and national organizations. Specific duties of the Chairperson include assigning teaching responsibilities, developing the departmental budget, teaching, engaging in service and scholarly activities, and serving on the School's executive committee.

The preferred candidate will have a terminal degree, at least five years of experience in the academia of pharmacy, a good record of scholarly activity, outstanding communication and interpersonal skills, evidence of management ability, an understanding of changing patterns in pharmacy education, and a commitment to diversity.

Nominations, inquiries, and letters of intent should be addressed to: Arcelia Johnson-Fannin, Pharm.D., Dean, Feik School of Pharmacy (CPO #99), University of the Incarnate Word, 4301 Broadway, San Antonio, TX 78209. To be considered for the position an electronic application must also be completed at website: http://jobs.uiv.edu.

FACULTY POSITIONS

College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences
Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences

The Butler University School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences is seeking collegial, dynamic applicants with strong interpersonal skills for two 12-month, tenure-track faculty positions at the ASSISTANT or ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR level in the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences.

Applicants must possess a Ph.D. in pharmacology, medicinal chemistry, or biochemistry; have postdoctoral research experience; and be currently engaged in research with an emphasis in drug design and metabolism and/or neuropharmacology. Applicants must have a strong desire to teach in professional and graduate programs, to create a learner-centered teaching environment, and to conduct bench research involving both undergraduate and graduate students. The individuals selected for these positions will be expected to establish their own independent research programs and to seek extramural funding for them; information about the College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences and Butler University is available at website: http://www.butler.edu/cophs/.

Candidates are asked to submit a letter of application; curriculum vitae; e-mail and telephone contact information for three references; a statement of teaching philosophy; and a five-year research plan in PDF format to Medhane Cumbay, Ph.D., Chair of the Search Committee, at e-mail: mcumbay@butler.edu.

Butler University is an Equal Opportunity Employer and is committed to enhancing the diversity of the student body and its faculty and staff.

ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR Pharmacology/Endocrinology

The College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Georgia is recruiting for a tenure-track position at the Assistant/Associate level in the Department of Physiology and Pharmacology. The successful candidate will be expected to develop and maintain an externally funded research program and participate in teaching pharmacology and/or endocrinology in the veterinary professional program. Qualifications for the position include a Ph.D., M.D., D.V.M., or equivalent degree. While we seek candidates who will complement existing research activity (current strengths include molecular and cellular physiology, vascular physiology, reproductive physiology, toxicology, and neuroscience), evidence of research excellence is more important than the specific area of study. See website: http://www.vet.uga.edu/vph/ for more information. Interested applicants should submit a letter of application including a statement of research plans, a statement of teaching interests, and curriculum vitae; and request that three references be sent to: Dr. John J. Wagner, Chair of the Search Committee, College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Georgia, 501 D.W. Brooks Drive, Athens, GA 30602, or electronically to e-mail: physphrm@uga.edu. Applications received by March 6, 2009, are assured full consideration; the position will remain open until filled. The University of Georgia is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.
