POSITIONS OPEN

ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR
Cognitive Neuroscience (tenure track)
University of Washington Institute for Learning and Brain Sciences

The University of Washington's Institute for Learning and Brain Sciences (I-LABS), an interdisciplinary brain research center, has a tenure-track faculty opening for an Assistant/Associate Professor in cognitive neuroscience with a focus on language. Departmental affiliation can be in Psychology, Speech and Hearing Sciences, Linguistics, or Biology, depending on the applicant's background and training. Ph.D. required. Appointment at the Associate Professor level will be considered for candidates who have an outstanding research record. I-LABS faculty study life-long learning and specialize in human cognitive development and learning. We have a growing developmental group at the Institute. The Institute will open its own Magnetoencephalography Brain Imaging Center in April 2010. The successful candidate will be one who brings expertise in human cognitive neuroscience with a focus in the domain of language, development, and/or research using MEG/event-related potentials. Faculty responsibilities will begin September 16, 2010.

Applicants should send a statement of teaching and research interests, curriculum vitae, up to five publication reprints, and three letters of recommendation to: Patricia Kuhl, Co-Director, Institute for Learning and Brain Sciences, Mailstop 357988, University of Washington, Seattle, WA 98195. E-mail: pkkuhl@u.washington.edu. Review of applications will begin in January 15, 2010, and will continue until the position is filled.

The University of Washington is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer, and is building a culturally diverse faculty and staff and strongly encourages applications from women, minorities, individuals with disabilities, and covered veterans. UW faculty engage in teaching, research, and service. The University of Washington, a recipient of the 2006 Alfred P. Sloan award for Faculty Career Flexibility, is committed to supporting the work-life balance of its faculty.

TENURE-TRACK FACULTY POSITIONS
Physiology

The Department of Physiology at Wayne State University (WSU) School of Medicine invites applications for two tenure-track ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR positions. We seek well-trained individuals with research interests in the areas of molecular, cellular, systems, translational physiology and/or biophysics to strengthen and complement ongoing programs in the Department (website: http://physiology.med.wayne.edu). The Department is currently under major expansion and integrative development with the Cardiovascular Research Institute (website: http://cvri.med.wayne.edu/index.php) and C.S. Mott Center for Human Growth and Development (website: http://mott.med.wayne.edu/).

Startup packages and salaries are highly competitive. Candidates are expected to establish active, extramurally funded research programs and to participate in teaching medical/graduate students. Candidates must hold Ph.D., M.D., or equivalent and apply electronically with curriculum vitae, detailed research plan, and names/contact information of three references to e-mail: wsuphysiologyfacultysearch@med.wayne.edu. Review of applications will begin after December 15, 2009, and continue until positions are filled.

WSU offers 350 academic programs through 14 schools and colleges to over 31,000 students in metropolitan Detroit. The Detroit metro area combines cosmopolitan attractions with lovely suburban communities as part of a national technology hub. WSU School of Medicine is a state-of-the-art research environment, and is rated in the top third of all U.S. research institutions. WSU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.

POSITIONS OPEN

SENIOR FACULTY/RESEARCH SCIENTIST
University of New Mexico and The Mind Research Network

Up to three senior faculty positions available to lead the research at The Mind Research Network (MRN), Albuquerque, New Mexico, an independent research organization (website: http://www.mrn.org), with a joint appointment as a tenure-track faculty member either at the University of New Mexico or another institution in the United States. Significant startup fund and highly competitive salary from MRN. Strong external funding is prerequisite. Successful candidate should have expertise in one or more of the following areas: human brain development, schizophrenia, addiction, health psychology, and neuroinformatics, based on one or more of the following technologies: magnetic resonance imaging, magnetoencephalography, electroencephalography, neuropsychology, and genetics. To apply, please send curriculum vitae, a description of research and teaching interests, and three letters of recommendation to: MRN, Attn: Human Resources/Chair of MRN/UNM Search Committee, 1101 Yale Boulevard N.E., Albuquerque, NM 87106-4188. To send application materials electronically, use e-mail: hr@mrn.org with the subject Senior Faculty/Research Scientist. The committee will begin reviewing applications as they are received focused on a deadline. Equal Opportunity Employer, Minorities/Females/Persons with Disabilities/Veterans.

ORGANISMAL BIOLOGIST,
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

Tenure Track, Academic Year 100 Percent

The Department of Biology in the College of Science and Health at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse is expanding and invites applications for a new academic year, tenure-track position at the level of Assistant Professor. We seek an Organismal Biologist who will participate in teaching our biology core curriculum including organismal biology, and courses in her/his area of expertise. Training in invertebrate zoology, or seedless plants/algae, is preferred, but individuals with other organismal biology specialties are encouraged to apply. Our Department values diversity in its faculty, staff, and students. We seek a colleague who shares our Department's commitment to diversity and who will be a dedicated teacher, active scholar, and effective mentor for students with diverse backgrounds, preparation, and career goals. UW-L is nationally renowned as a comprehensive university with demonstrated excellence in undergraduate and graduate education and research. Coupled with the beautiful surroundings of the region, UW-L offers a stellar environment for professional and personal achievement. A Ph.D. in a biological science is required, and previous teaching experience is desirable. Successful candidates will be expected to develop an externally funded research program and to direct undergraduate and graduate (M.S.) research. Academic year salary is competitive and commensurate with experience. Start date is August 30, 2010. All applications must be submitted electronically at website: https://employment.uwlax.edu.

Applications must include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statements of teaching philosophy and research interests, graduate and undergraduate transcripts, and the names and contact information of three references. Applications completed by January 15, 2010, will be given first priority, but the review process will continue until the position is filled. The University of Wisconsin-La Crosse is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. If you have a special need/accommodation to aid your participation in our hiring process, please contact David Howard, e-mail: howard.davi@uwlax.edu to make appropriate arrangements. Employment will require a criminal background check. A pending criminal charge or conviction will not necessarily disqualify an applicant. In compliance with the Wisconsin Fair Employment Act, UW-La Crosse does not discriminate on the basis of arrest or conviction record.
