Johns Hopkins University

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

The School of Medicine is an Integral Part of the University and is in the Closest Affiliation with the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

ADMISSION
Candidates for admission must be graduates of approved colleges or scientific schools with at least two years' instruction, including laboratory work, in chemistry, and one year each in physics and biology, together with evidence of a reading knowledge of French and German.

Each class is limited to a maximum of 75 students, men and women being admitted on the same terms. Applications may be sent any time during the academic year but not later than June 15th.

If vacancies occur, students from other institutions desiring advanced standing may be admitted to the second or third year provided they fulfill the requirements and present exceptional qualifications.

INSTRUCTION
The academic year begins the Tuesday nearest October 1, and closes the second Tuesday in June. The course of instruction occupies four years and especial emphasis is laid upon practical work in the laboratories, in the wards of the Hospital and in the dispensary.

TUITION
The charge for tuition is $300 per annum, payable in three installments. There are no extra fees except for certain expensive supplies, and laboratory breakage.

The annual announcement and application blanks may be obtained by addressing the Registrar of the School of Medicine, Johns Hopkins University, Washington and Monument Sts., Baltimore, Md.

Owing to an extensive building program about to be inaugurated at the Hospital and Medical School, it has been deemed necessary to withdraw, for the next two years at least, post-graduate instruction during the year as well as the summer course formerly given during June and July.

HERBERT DIXON DOREY
“The emulsion used on this material is the only one with which I have ever worked which reproduces everything there is in the negative.”

—Opinion of a leading commercial photographer in Chicago.

Referring to

Raygraphs

A high speed emulsion on an opaque fibre base.
Fast enough for direct exposure.
Ten times faster than printing paper.
Extreme latitude for over-exposure.
Use Raygraphs on negatives usually considered failures and note results—contact print or enlargement.

Every laboratory doing any amount of photography will find RAYGRAPHS invaluable for various phases of their work.

Send for samples and prove them out.
