HONOR SOCIETIES

By Dr. E. P. Lyon
Dean of the University of Minnesota Medical School

The other day a recent graduate of our school came in to see me. He had just completed his internship and was trying to decide whether to begin practice or to enter upon graduate study. Across his stomach—it was too low for his heart!—I observed a watch chain from which dangled four golden keys. There was Phi Beta Kappa. He was the best scholar in his class in a well-known college, and he hung that key on his chain when he took his A.B. degree. There was Sigma Xi. He gathered that in his second year of medicine by spending his spare time—oh, yes! a good man has spare time!—and his vacations in the bacteriological laboratory and writing a nice original paper. The third was Alpha Omega Alpha. Those present know how he got that. He stood second in his class in medical school, and the Minnesota Chapter took several dollars of his (father's?) money and presented him with the mystic emblem which goes
