BIBLIOGRAPHIC SERVICE

ISSUES
AUTHORS' ABSTRACTS
of all papers appearing in the journals listed below prior to publication of the articles in full. By this advance information biologists may familiarize themselves with contemporary research in a minimum of time.

Advance Abstract Sheets are issued twice a month, each sheet containing ten or more authors' abstracts. Subscription rate is $3.00 per year.

Bibliographic Service Cards, following the Advance Abstract Sheets, also are issued twice a month. In addition to the authors' abstracts, the cards provide subject headings and complete bibliographic reference. The cards are convenient for filing and library records. Price, $5.00 per year.

At regular intervals the authors' abstracts are assembled and published in book form with complete authors' and analytical subject indices. Price, $5.00 per volume. Liberal discount to subscribers to the Bibliographic Service Cards.

NEW BOOKS

MAN'S ADAPTATION OF NATURE
Studies of the Cultural Landscape

A new approach to the study of human geography. Describes by means of vivid factual and photographic illustrations the ways in which human activity adapts and modifies nature, and is itself adapted and modified by nature. Teachers of economic geography will find this volume an invaluable aid.

CHAMBERLIN AND SALISBURY'S

COLLEGE TEXTBOOK OF GEOLOGY
Vol. One: GEOLOGIC PROCESSES AND THEIR RESULTS

The second revision of this excellent text contains new material on weathering, the occurrence of ground water, artesian wells, Appalachian physiography, the cycle of arid climates, Alpine topography, volcanoes, and diastrophism; also many new illustrations. A special feature is the new chapter on the origin of mountains. Teachers of geology will do well to wait for the volume's appearance early this summer.
