Professor Dowden writes a scholarly and instructive paper on Edmond Scherer, the French poet and critic, who died in March.

—We regret to note that failing mental faculties have at last compelled Mr. George Bancroft, the historian, to abandon his literary labors.

—It is almost a year since Scribner’s Magazine began the publication of its Railway Series. Among the subjects of the articles will be "The Application of Electricity to Modern Telegraphy, to Lighting, to the Household, to the Human Body, to Warfare on Land and Sea, and to Large Industries." The whole series will be illustrated.

SCIENCE. [Vol. XIII. No. 325]

Professor T. W. Huxley and O. L. L. Ee., Professor of Natural Philosophy in the University of Wisconsin, with Illustrations, Vol. I., L., Constitution of Matter. 12mo, §.

We do not believe that any man of science will rise from the perusal of these papers without a deepening of his love of old conceptions, and without broader and clearer views of the possibilities of future scientific progress. . . . We await the appearance of the second and third volumes of these papers with great interest.—Nature.

THE CHEMISTRY OF PHOTOGRAPHY. By Raphael Meldold, F.B.S., &c., Professor of Chemistry in the Finsbury Technical College. 12mo, §.

MODERN VIEW OF ELECTRICITY. By Oliver J. Lodge, LL.D., F.R.S., Professor of Experimental Physics in University College, Liverpool, Illustrated, In Press.

Popular Lectures and Addresses on Various Subjects in Physical Science.

TALES OF THE BIRDS. By W. Warner, F.R.S., &c., Sub-kector of Lincoln College, Oxford. Illustrated. 12mo, §2.50. Mr. Fowler has produced a charming book which none are too old and few too young to appreciate. He possesses the rare art of telling a story simply and unaffectedly. . . . The Tales of the Birds would be an admirable present to any child, and if the grown up read it first the present would, in a peculiar degree, have a double interest and a double blessing which proverbially belongs to a gift—Guardian.
