

is illustrated. The third contribution, "Indiana's First Settlement," by the Hon. E. A. Bryan, president of Vincennes University, is on the beginnings of the State of Indiana, with portraits of George Rogers Clark and François Vigo. Then follows "The Harrisons in History," by Mrs. Ella B. Washington, an account of the President's family; "The Historic Quadrille," by Gen. John Cochrane, pointing out the historic idea which seems to have been so little understood by the public at large; "Reminiscences of Mrs. Bradford," the daughter of Hon. Elias Boudinot, who was one of the ladies of the Washington circle, by J. J. Boudinot; "Slavery in Connecticut," by Charles M. Andrews; and "Louisburg, 1745, Bunker Hill, 1775," by Nathan M. Hawkes.

— The International Record of Charities and Correction has been removed to Springfield, Ill., where the publishing details will hereafter be under the charge of the Rev. F. H. Wines, with whom the plan of the Record originated, and who has from the outset been its editor. The suspension of the Record for the last four months has been caused by the fact that it had not succeeded in securing sufficient support to return the cost of its publication, which has resulted in a considerable deficit, that has now been met by the voluntary contributions of its friends. The plan and the execution of the Record have been very warmly commended by the best authorities, and the successive numbers have been cordially welcomed by a certain circle of readers interested in the special subjects to which it was devoted; but the support for it, even on the part of those directly concerned in reformatory work, was much smaller than had been looked for by Mr. Wines and by those who had associated themselves with him in the undertaking. The valuable editorial services of Mr. Wines have been contributed entirely without compensation, and at no little personal sacrifice. Mr. Wines proposes to continue the publication at Springfield, which will enable him to deliver to the subscribers, at an early date, the numbers required to complete the current volume; and it is his hope to receive such further encouragement from the public as may warrant him in continuing the publication without further break, and may enable him to secure for the Record a permanent place as the recognized organ of the charity-reform interests of the country.

— The April issue of The Trained Nurse (consecrated to those who minister to the sick and suffering in hospital and home) contains articles on "The Relation of Hospitals to Medical Education," "Insanity, its Causes and Cure," "Articles for the Mother's Use," "Health in our Homes," "Asepsis for the Nurse," besides considerable other editorial and original matter. The monthly Hospital Supplement contains hospital news from all parts of the world. The Lakeside Publishing Co., Buffalo, N. Y., are the publishers.

— A. D. F. Randolph & Co. have ready an interesting literary contribution to the anniversary celebration, in Mr. Thomas E. V. Smith's volume, "The City of New York in the Year of Washington's Inauguration, 1789."

— Roberts Brothers have just ready "Ethical Religion," a volume of lectures delivered by W. M. Salter before the Society of Ethical Culture of Chicago; and a revised edition of C. E. Pascoe's useful handbook, "London of To-Day," which is now in its fifth year.

— Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. will publish shortly another contribution to the growing Emerson literature. The forthcoming volume is by the son of the sage of Concord, Mr. Edward W. Emerson, who will afford a glimpse into the domestic life of his father. The title of the book will be "Emerson in Concord." Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. have also under way an illustrated edition of Thackeray, which will be, it is promised, more complete than any other existing edition. It will be in twenty-two 12mo volumes printed in large type.

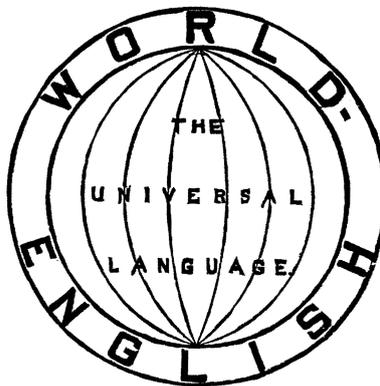

ONE LANGUAGE FOR THE WHOLE WORLD.

WORLD-ENGLISH :

THE UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE. 25 CENTS.

EVERY one has heard of the butcher who, after a long search for his knife, at last found it in his mouth: so speakers of English have been seeking for a universal language, when, lo! it is in their mouths. The intelligibility of English words has been obscured by a dense mist of letters. This is now dispersed by A. Melville Bell, who has already won a world-wide reputation through his invention of "Visible Speech," the great boon to deaf-mutes. Professor Bell calls this new discovery of his "World-English," and the result is a language which cannot fail to meet with acceptance, and at once supersede the supposed necessity for "Volapük," or any other artificial language. No language could be invented for international use that would surpass English in grammatical simplicity, and in general fitness to become the tongue of the world. It is already the mother-tongue of increasing millions in both hemispheres, and some knowledge of the language is demanded by all educated populations on the globe. Social and commercial necessities require that the acquisition of this knowledge shall be facilitated, and it is believed that Professor Bell's invention has removed the last impediment to English becoming the universal language, for which vague desires have long been entertained, although hitherto only futile efforts have been made.

Ex-President Andrew D. White, of Cornell University, says: "I believe that the highest interests of Christian civilization and of humanity would be served by its adoption. China and Japan would be made English-speaking peoples within fifty years, and so brought within the range of Christianizing and civilizing ideas, in the largest sense. All existing missionary work is trivial as compared with this. For your system would throw wide open those vast countries, as, indeed, all the countries of the world, to the whole current of English and American thought."

HAND-BOOK OF WORLD-ENGLISH,

25 CENTS.

The plan of this little book is altogether new. Letters and sounds are so associated, in all the exercises, that from the mere knowledge of letters a learner cannot fail to pronounce words with certainty. English reading will thus be easily acquired, whether by natives or foreigners, children or adults.

The general resemblance of World-English to Literary English is such that any reader of the latter deciphers the former at sight, or, at most, after a few minutes' study of the new letters. A like result may be anticipated for those who shall learn to read from World-English. They will transfer their power of reading to the literary form of the language, almost without effort. The orthographic aspect of words will, besides, be so fixed in the eye, by contrast, that spelling will be remembered as what it really is — a pictorial association with words.

No special training is required to qualify teachers for using this book. The subject can even be successfully introduced in the kindergarten and the nursery. This phonetic mode of initiation in reading cannot be too strongly urged on the attention of School Boards on both sides of the Atlantic.

The ordinary orthography of each word is interlined with the World-English version throughout the Exercises and Readings.

So set down, our tongue is the best for the world to unite upon.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The idea of Mr. Bell has much to recommend it, and the presentation is charmingly clear.—American, Phila. The result is a language which cannot fail to meet with acceptance.—Boston Traveller.

Has the merit of great ingenuity.—Railway Age.

His treatise, as a study of English orthoepy, condenses the result of much thought and experience in small compass.—The Critic.

World-English deserves the careful consideration of all serious scholars.—Modern Language Notes.

World-English is the English language unburdened of its chaotic spelling.—Popular Science Monthly.

We commend it to the attention of teachers.—Ottawa Globe.
