
Dyspepsia

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

In dyspepsia the stomach fails to assimilate the food. The Acid Phosphate assists the weakened stomach, making the process of digestion natural and easy.

Dr. R. S. McCord, Philadelphia, says:

"Used it in nervous dyspepsia, with success."

Dr. W. S. Leonard, Hinsdale, N. H., says:

"The best remedy for dyspepsia that has ever come under my notice."

Dr. T. H. Andrews, Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, says:

"A wonderful remedy which gave me most gratifying results in the worst forms of dyspepsia."

CATARRH.

Catarhal Deafness—Hag Fever.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.

N. B.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians for obvious reasons. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free on receipt of stamp to pay postage, by A. H. Dixon, 337 and 339 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.—Christian Advocate.

Sufferers from catarhal troubles should carefully read the above.

A TEMPORARY BINDER

The author of this book was for some years president of the New York Microplosical Society, and in this volume he sets forth his views on the spontaneous generation theory and its relation to the general theory of evolution, and on protoplasm and the cell doctrine.

The Tornado.

By H. A. HAZEN, $1.

Professor Hazen is one of the prominent meteorologists of the forensic science. His work on the subject has been widely known and he is well qualified to write on the subject. This book will prove a decided contribution to the world's knowledge. In this book will be found a careful discussion of the important question of tornado insurance, now attracting so much attention. Hundreds of dollars may be saved by those who are thinking of such insurance by following the principles here made plain.

THE CHEROKEES IN PRE-COLUMBIAN TIMES

By CYRUS THOMAS. $1.

Dr. Thomas in this work will reverse the usual method of dealing with prehistoric subjects: that is to say, he will commence with the earliest recorded history of the Cherokees as a basis, and trace the chain of events back step by step by the light of the mounds, traditions, and historical data. The work has already been made public and it is a valuable contribution to the subject.

THE SUPPRESSION OF CONSUMPTION.

By GODFREY W. HAMILTON, M.D. 12¢, 40c.

"The inestimable importance of the subject, the eminence of the author and the novelty of his work call for a class to combine it with a desultory study of special consideration. We heartily commend Dr. Hamilton's book and we believe there were more such works."—Editorial, Boston Daily Advertiser.

"The monograph is interesting in style, scholarly, and well worthy of careful consideration. It is devoid of technicalities and is easily read and digested."—Pharmaceutical Era.

"It is full of news. Saturday Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

"The book contains much of importance to the medical fraternity, as well as the general populace."—Burlington Free Press.

"We commend the book to physicians and laymen."—Herold (German), Milwaukee.

THE SOCIETY AND THE "PAD.

By APPLETON MORGAN, Esq. 12¢, 20 cents.

Mr. Morgan founds a sensible and interesting position that the sentence from young ladies' magazines is, nursery, and the child's story, an immoral and unscientific work.
