

his author's works, but has confined himself in the main to thoughts on moral topics, such as study, society and solitude, friendship, and others of the like nature; and in this we think he has done wisely, for such ethical sayings are the most likely to do good. We cannot say, however, that we find much depth or originality in Thoreau's thinking, and we doubt if he has had much real influence even over his admirers.

—A neat and useful pocket manual for army officers is "Notes on Military Hygiene," by Lieut.-Col. Alfred A. Woodhull, which has recently been published by John Wiley & Sons. The little volume contains what may be called the essence of a series of lectures on military hygiene, delivered by the author at the Infantry and Cavalry School at Fort Leavenworth. Though originally prepared for the convenience of students, the work will no doubt prove acceptable to officers of the line generally. Among the topics discussed are the selection of soldiers, military clothing, food, habitations, camps and marches, sewers and waste, water, and preventable diseases.

—Messrs. Houghton, Mifflin, & Co. have just issued another volume (Vol. 34) of their Modern Classics,—a series which Dr. William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education, has called an "unrivalled list of excellent works." This new volume, entitled "Thackeray's Lighter Hours," contains "Dr. Birch and his Young Friends," "Selections from the Book of Snobs and the Roundabout Papers," and "The Curate's Walk." Modern Classics has a very extensive sale as a school library, for which it is well suited, as it contains many of the best complete stories, essays, sketches, and poems in modern literature, including selections from the celebrated authors of England and America, and translations of masterpieces by continental writers.

—William M. Goldthwaite, New York, has published a "Driving Road Chart of the Country surrounding New York City." This chart covers every place within twenty miles radius of the City Hall, and in parts extends out to nearly forty. This map will be specially useful to all living in or near the city, or contemplating removing to it.

—Herbert Ward, in the preface to his "Five Years with the Congo Cannibals," tells his story of the rear-guard of the Stanley expedition for the relief of Emin Pacha. The trials of those left behind by Mr. Stanley when he pushed forward, the fate of Major Barttelot and Mr. Jameson, and Mr. Ward's own part in the transactions of that trying period, form an interesting chapter in the history of Mr. Stanley's great enterprise.

—A map of the valley of Virginia, showing the location of all the industrial towns, battle-fields, mountain-passes, and Luray caverns (10 cents), is published by Alex. Y. Lee, C.E., Luray, Va.

—Volume II. of the "Bulletin of the Illinois State Laboratory of Natural History, Champaign, Ill.," contains the following articles: "Descriptive Catalogue of the North American Hepaticæ, North of Mexico," by Lucien M. Underwood; "Description of New Illinois Fishes," by S. A. Forbes; "Parasitic Fungi of Illinois," Part I., by T. J. Burrill; "Studies on the Contagious Diseases of Insects," I., by S. A. Forbes; "List of the Described Species of Fresh Water Crustacea from America, North of Mexico," by Lucien M. Underwood; "Parasitic Fungi of Illinois," Part II., by T. J. Burrill and F. S. Earle; "Studies of the Food of Fresh-Water Fishes," by S. A. Forbes; and "On the Food Relations of Fresh-Water Fishes," by S. A. Forbes. Vol. III. of the same publication contains, among others, the following articles: "A Descriptive Catalogue of the Phalangiinæ of Illinois," by Clarence M. Weed; "A Partial Bibliography of the Phalangiinæ of North America," by Clarence M. Weed; "On an American Earthworm of the Family Phreoryctidæ," by S. A. Forbes; "An American Terrestrial Leech," by S. A. Forbes; "A Preliminary Report on the Animals of the Mississippi Bottoms near Quincy, Ill., in August, 1888," Part I., by H. Garman; and "Notes on Illinois Reptiles and Amphibians

TIME RELATIONS OF MENTAL PHENOMENA.

By JOSEPH JASTROW, PROFESSOR OF PSYCHOLOGY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN.

12°. 50 cents.

It is only within very recent years that this department of research has been cultivated; and it is natural that the results of different workers, involving variations in method and design, should show points of difference. In spite of these it seems possible to present a systematic sketch of what has been done, with due reference to the ultimate goal as well as to the many gaps still to be filled.

RACES AND PEOPLES.

By DANIEL G. BRINTON, M.D.

"We strongly recommend Dr. Brinton's 'Races and Peoples' to both beginners and scholars. We are not aware of any other recent work on the science of which it treats in the English language."—Asiatic Quarterly.

"His book is an excellent one, and we can heartily recommend it as an introductory manual of ethnology."—The Monist.

"A useful and really interesting work, which deserves to be widely read and studied both in Europe and America."—Brighton (Eng.) Herald.

"This volume is most stimulating. It is written with great clearness, so that anybody can understand, and while in some ways, perforce, superficial, grasps very well the complete field of humanity."—The New York Times.

"Dr. Brinton invests his scientific illustrations and measurements with an indescribable charm of narration, so that 'Races and Peoples,' avowedly a record of discovered facts, is in reality a strong stimulant to the imagination."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.
