Dyspepsia

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

In dyspepsia the stomach fails to assimilate the food. The Acid Phosphate assists the weakened stomach, making the process of digestion natural and easy.

Dr. R. S. McCormick, Philadelphia, says:

"Used it in nervous dyspepsia, with success."

Dr. W. S. Leonard, Hinsdale, N. H., says:

"The best remedy for dyspepsia that has ever come under my notice."

Dr. T. H. Andrews, Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, says:

"A wonderful remedy which gave me most gratifying results in the worst forms of dyspepsia."

Descriptive pamphlet free.

Ramford Chemical Works, Providence, R. I.

Beware of Substitutes and Imitations.

CAUTION.—Be sure the word "Horsford's" is printed on the label. All others are spurious. Never sold in bulk.

BOOKS: How to Exchange them for others. Send a postal to the Science exchange column (insertion free), stating briefly what you want to exchange. Science, 47 Lafayette Place, New York.
NEW BOOKS.
JUST PUBLISHED.

THE AMERICAN RACE:
By Daniel G. Brinton, M.D.
A Linguistic Classification and Ethnographic Description of the Native Tribes of North and South America. This is the first attempt ever made to classify all the Indian tribes by their languages, and it also treats of their customs, religions, physical traits, arts, antiquities, and traditions. The work comprises the results of several years of study in this special field.

Price, postpaid, $2.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.
RACES AND PEOPLES.

"The book is good, thoroughly good, and will long remain the best accessible ethnography in our language."—The Christian Union.

"We strongly recommend Dr. Brinton's "Races and Peoples" to both beginners and scholars. We are not aware of any other treatise work on the science of which it treats in the English language."—Scientific American.

"His book is an excellent one, and we heartily recommend it as an introduction to the study of race and language."—The Boston Transcript.

"This volume is most stimulating. It is written with great clearness, so that anybody can understand it, and, while in some ways, perform superficial, deserves the whole of the field of humanity."

"Dr. Brinton's book is one of the most important results of scientific investigation, and is destined to hold a prominent place among the works of ethnological research."

Philadelphia Public Ledger.

This work is indispensable to the scholar who requires an intelligent guide to a course of ethnographic study.

Price, postpaid, $1.75.

THE MODERN MALADY; or, Sufferers from 'Nerves.'

An introduction to public consideration, from a non-medical point of view, of a condition of ill-health which is increasingly prevalent in all ranks of society. In this first part of the work the author dwells on the errors in common practice in treating Neurasthenia, consequent on the wide ignorance of the subject which still prevails; in the second part, attention is directed to the principal causes of the malady. The allegory forming the Introduction renders a brief history of nervous exhaustion and the modes of treatment which have at various times been thought suitable to this most painful and trying disease.

By Cyril Bennett.

12mo, 184 pp., $1.50.

THE WINNIPEG COUNTRY;
OR, ROUGHING IT WITH AN ECLIPSE PARTY.

By A. Rochester Fellow.

With thirty-two Illustrations and a Map. 12mo. $1.50.

"The story is a piquant, good-humored, entertaining narrative of a novel voyage. A reader, prepossessed by the author's position, would find it amusing."

—Literary World.

"This is a picture of personal incident and of the wide rising experiences on a frontier which is rapidly receding."

—Forty-Niner.

"The picture of our descent North western territory, twenty-five years ago, is the contrast with the civilized aspect to-day, and the pleasant features of the writer's style, make his little book a present attraction."—The Daily News.

N. D. C. HODGES, 47 Lafayette Place, New York.