GERMAN SIMPLIFIED.

“I take only one English weekly paper, The Spectator, and one Canadian, The Week, and as a rule I should be puzzled to say which I should miss most.”—From a letter by Thomas Hughes, author of "Tom Brown's School Days."

The Week:

Published every Thursday, at 12s. per annum.

Independent in Politics, The Week appeals by a comprehensive Table of Contents to the different tastes which exist within the circle of a cultured home.

An average of fifteen short crisp Editorials is given in each number upon CANADIAN, AMERICAN, AND ENGLISH POLITICS AND LITERATURE.

Amongst the regular Contributors is PROFESSOR GOLDWIN SMITH; and a distinguished public man in London has kindly undertaken to supply regularly an English Letter. Paris and Washington Letters will appear at regular intervals.

In addition there are special contributions from some of the ablest writers in the Dominion and the United States.

The Week has now entered upon its third year with most encouraging prospects, and with many new features.
