- The American Association for the Advancement of Science was founded in 1848 and incorporated in 1874. Its objects are to further the work of scientists, to facilitate cooperation among them, to foster scientific freedom and responsibility, to improve the effectiveness of science in the promotion of human welfare, and to increase public understanding and appreciation of the importance and promise of the methods of science in human progress.

COVER Manifestations of concern with AIDS, the acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, in the United States: children receiving instruction on AIDS prevention in the classroom and the burned-out house of a family with AIDS-infected children. This issue of Science includes articles on the epidemiological, legal, economic, and ethical issues of AIDS. See page 573.
