THE SYRACUSE MEETING OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE AND ASSOCIATED SOCIETIES

Edited by Dr. CHARLES F. ROOS

PERMANENT SECRETARY

GENERAL FEATURES

THE ninetieth meeting of the American Association was held at Syracuse from Monday, June 20, to Saturday, June 25, 1932. The preliminary announcement of this meeting, which was the first meeting of the association at Syracuse, appeared in SCIENCE for May 27, and the general program was published at Syracuse on Monday, June 20. Copies of the program may be secured free from the Washington office of the association.

The president for this meeting was Dr. John Jacob Abel, eminent pharmacologist and medical research worker. Dr. Abel presided at the opening general session on Monday evening.

Four hundred and twenty-six persons registered at the association's registration offices in the entrance of Lyman Hall of the Syracuse University. A check of registration by societies and sections indicates, however, that over one thousand were in attendance. These were distributed about as follows:

Mathematics	39	Economics, Sociology
Physics	20	and Statistics	50
Astronomy	30	Historical Sciences	30
Chemistry	122	Engineering	40
Zoology	137	Medical Sciences	170
Botany	82	Agriculture	100
Anthropology	50	Education	50
Psychology	140

The general program shows that 289 authors presented 260 papers. Many contributions were made by joint authors. The papers were distributed among the sciences about as follows:
